

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 747

Introduced by Assembly Member Huber

February 17, 2011

An act to amend Section 51705 of the Education Code, relating to pupil instruction.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 747, as introduced, Huber. Pupil instruction: online programs.

Existing law defines an asynchronous interactive instructional program as a program in which a pupil and teacher interact using online resources, including, but not limited to, discussion boards, Internet Web sites, and e-mail.

This bill would make technical, nonsubstantive changes to this definition.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 51705 of the Education Code is amended
- 2 to read:
- 3 51705. For purposes of this article, the following terms have
- 4 the following meanings:
- 5 (a) "Asynchronous interactive instructional program" means a
- 6 program in which a pupil and teacher interact using online
- 7 resources, including, but not limited to, discussion boards, Internet
- 8 Web sites, and e-mail. However, the pupil and teacher need not
- 9 ~~necessarily~~ be online at the same time.

1 (b) “Internet” means the global information system that is
2 logically linked together by a globally unique address space based
3 on the Internet Protocol (IP), or its subsequent extensions, and that
4 is able to support communications using the Transmission Control
5 Protocol/Internet Protocol (TCP/IP) suite, or provides, uses, or
6 makes accessible, either publicly or privately, high-level services
7 layered on the communications and related infrastructure described 8 in this subdivision.
